

This is an expository talk about a tentative to classify birational morphisms from \mathbb{C}^2 to \mathbb{C}^2 using the configuration of missing curves and fundamental points. At the end I will present new results obtained with Peter Russell.