Solution of the Kakeya problem in the plane.

Aart Blokhuis

Technische Universiteit Eindhoven

12 October 2007
SEMINAR INCIDENCE GEOMETRY

We solve the problem of the minimal number of points covered by a set of lines in a (finite) desarguesian affine plane, one line in each direction. We also will give improved lower bounds for the more dimensional case. Joint work with Franco Mazzocca from Caserta (2nd university of Naples).