

Finite Geometry and Quantum Computing

Chris Godsil

University of Waterloo, Canada

Work on problems in quantum computing has led to a number of interesting problems involving distance-regular graphs, generalized quadrangles and related structures. I will discuss some of this work.

---

Combinatorics and Optimization, University of Waterloo, Waterloo ON, Canada.
cgodsil@uwaterloo.ca